Soybean Oil-Based Ink / Vegetable Based Ink Statement

All printing services offered in response to this solicitation must use soybean oil-based ink.

Does your quote include soybean oil-base ink? _____ Yes _____ No

"Offset printing" means lithography, flexography, gravure, or letterpress. "Offset printing" involves the process of transferring ink through static or fixed image plates using an impact method of pressing ink into a substrate.
(b) Contracts requiring the procurement of offset printing services shall specify the use of soybean oil-based ink or vegetable oil-based ink unless a State purchasing officer determines that another type of ink is required to assure high quality and reasonable pricing of the printed product.
This Section does not apply to digital printing services.

If no, please explain fully below:

Prevailing Wage Statement

All printing services offered in response to this solicitation shall be performed by employees receiving the prevailing wage rate and working under conditions prevalent in the locality where the contract is to be performed. Any respondent whose employees receive less than such prevailing wage rate, or work under less favorable conditions than those prevalent in the locality, shall not be considered to be a responsive bidder.

The Director of the Illinois Department of Labor shall determine prevailing wages and working conditions. Questions regarding prevailing wages and working conditions can be addressed to the Department of Labor at (217) 782-1710.

By affixing an authorized signature below, the vendor certifies compliance with the above Prevailing Wage Requirements or the current Prevailing Wage Rates for Printers. (Public Act 90-572 Article 25 Section 25-60) Failure to sign this provision may result in your offer being considered non-responsive to this solicitation.
